Dr. Todd Overdorf graduated from Logan College of Chiropractic in 2000 and holds diplomate status from the International College of Applied Kinesiology (ICAK), Chiropractic Board of Clinical Nutrition (CBCN), and the American Association of Integrative Medicine (AAIM).

Dr. Overdorf teaches certification courses in Applied Kinesiology and also sits on the International Board of Examiners for the ICAK. He has taught hundreds of doctors and students the art of manual muscle testing as a way of neurological assessment and diagnosis.

On a personal side, he and his wife, Rebecca, moved to Charleston, SC in 2011 by way of Michigan seeking a milder climate that more suits their lifestyle. She has a love for tennis and he enjoys playing golf and studying the intricacies of golf biomechanics. He has also been practicing Tai Chi for over 15 years and feels that it is an integral aspect of his clinical practice.
